

Director of police academy in LWR receives award

By Staff Report , Herald-Tribune / Monday, August 8, 2016

Submitted by Manatee Technical College:

Jay Romine, director of the Law Enforcement Academy of Manatee Technical College, was presented with a Wall of Honor award by the Florida Police Chiefs Association for his service to the association.

Romine is the retired chief of the Holmes Beach Police Department. During his tenure as police chief, he served as president of the FCPA in 2004-2005, as well as multiple positions on the FPCA's Board of Directors and Executive Board. He holds the distinction of being awarded the FPCA's President's Award in 2000, 2003, and 2011. He was also recognized for "...how he distinguished himself as a legislative juggernaut in his years as the chair of the FPCA's Legislative Committee that fortified the FPCA as a major player in Tallahassee politics that continues to the present day."

He received the honor on August 3, 2016, during the FCPA's annual Summer Training Conference in Bonita Springs, Florida.

Last modified: August 8, 2016
All rights reserved. This copyrighted material may not be published without permissions. Links are encouraged.

SIMILAR STORIES

MTC Fire Science Academy grads to be job ready six months after high school

MTC farmworker program receives accolades

LWR Mustangs' Sam Jackson a Knight at heart

Possible high school in Parrish could benefit LWR and Braden River too

You might like:

- Public health officials to convene in LWR for immunization conference (Home | Lakewood Ranch)
- Success Stories: How 3 Uber Driver-Partners Earn on Their Own Terms (Uber)
- MTC graduates culinary arts and baking/pastry arts students (Home | Lakewood Ranch)
- What Labor Feels like When the Epidural Fails (BabyGaga)

Login | Signup

0 Comments

powered by:

Write your comment here

Submit

Follow

REALTIME

Newest ▼